EASTER TODAY AND ALWAYS

I read of an Easter sermon preached over 100 years ago by a man named T. DeWitt Talmadge of New York City. Talmadge illustrated our coming resurrection by referring to what was then a new-fangled invention called the phonograph. He spoke of how a person's voice could be recorded and preserved on a cylinder and then played back again and again after the person had died.

Then he asked the question, "If man can do that, cannot God, without half trying, return the voice of your departed?" But if God can bring back the voice, why not then the lips & the face & the body & the bones? He concluded with this wonderful sentence, "If man can do the phonograph, God can do the resurrection."

I don't know about his logic, but we sure do agree "God can do the resurrection."

Today we hear quite often the statement, "I can't wait until things get back to normal." We are all waiting for the pandemic and its restrictions and requirements to end.

I know we will need to continue to wait on some of those. But there is something we don't have to wait for any longer. The church year Easter season will still be with us the first three Sundays in May. But Easter doesn't end in three weeks. Because of Christ's resurrection victory Easter is with us today and always.

Easter isn't just about getting us to heaven one day when we die. You see, Easter brings us abundant life right now. Easter, Christ's victory over sin, death and the devil, changes everything – our future, yes – but also our today. Through the death and resurrection of Jesus, the old has gone, and the new has come.

There is no more waiting for a life of peace that you long for. It's yours, today! There's no more waiting for a life defined by forgiveness, freedom, joy, security, purpose and love. You have it right now. Because of Jesus, your old life, old mistakes, old habits, and old sins don't define you. You share in the resurrection life of Christ.

Yes, there are some gifts of Jesus that we continue to wait for. We wait for the day when sin will be no more and death will be but a memory. But let's not forget that we have so much already. Let's celebrate it, give thanks for it, and embrace it to the fullest! Jesus died (and rose) to bring you that life, after all. So let's praise Him for all He has done and make the most out of what we have, today.

Waiting is hard. That's why we pray for strength, endurance and patience. But, waiting is a whole lot easier when you already have so much. Easter (Christ) is with us today, and always!

In Christ,
Pastor Mitschke

Holy *COMMUNION

The Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood is received reverently among us. With COVID-19, our reception of the Sacrament is still affected.

Social distancing is practiced coming forward. Communicants come to receive the Sacrament as singles or a family. As the first family/single leaves the Communion Table, the next single or family comes forward.

In our distribution of the wine and the bread in the Sacrament, there is now no contact between the pastor/elder and the people.

The bread and wine are in individual cups touched only by the communicant(s). As the pastor says "Take eat" . . ., each communicant takes his own cup with bread, "Take drink" ., each communicant then takes his own cup with wine. The pastor then speaks the dismissal.

We followed suggestions and introduced these new precautions long ago. If you have comments or suggestions, please feel free to share them with an elder or pastor.

We appreciate the service of our Altar Guild for their beautiful service and add an extra thank you for their special work currently.

Dave Hall, Head Elder.
